Amended Administrative Order No. 2004-5

Expedited Summary Disposition
Docket in the Court of Appeals

~~On order of the Court, notice of the proposed expedited docket and an opportunity for comment in writing and at a public hearing having been provided, and consideration having been given to the comments received, the following proposal is adopted for a two-year period, effective January 1, 2005~~Pursuant to Administrative Order No. 2004-5, this Court adopted an expedited summary disposition docket in the Court of Appeals to take effect on January 1, 2005, and to expire on December 31, 2006. We now order that the expedited summary disposition docket continue in effect, as modified infra, for a twelve-month period.

1. Applicability. This amended administrative order applies to appeals filed on or after January 1, ~~2005~~2006, arising solely from orders granting or denying motions for summary disposition under MCR 2.116. These appeals are to be placed on an expedited appeal track under which they shall generally be briefed, argued, and disposed of within six months of filing. A motion to remove is required to divert such appeals to the standard appeal track.
2. Time Requirements. Appeals by right or by leave in cases covered by this order must be taken within the time stated in MCR 7.204 or MCR 7.205. Claims of cross-appeal must be filed within 14 days after the claim of appeal is filed with the Court of Appeals or served on the cross-appellant, whichever is later, or within 14 days after the clerk certifies the order granting leave to appeal.
3. Trial Court Orders on Motions for Summary Disposition. If the trial court concludes that summary disposition is warranted under MCR 2.116(C), the court shall render judgment without delay in an order that specifies the subsection of MCR 2.116(C) under which the judgment is entered.

4. Claim of Appeal—Form of Filing. With the following exceptions, a claim of appeal filed under this order shall conform in all respects with the requirements of MCR 7.204.

(A) A docketing statement will not be required as long as the case proceeds on the summary disposition track.

(B) When the claim of appeal is filed, it shall be accompanied by:

- (2) a statement that there is no record to transcribe, or
- (3) the stipulation of the parties~~a statement~~ that the transcript has been waived.

Failure to file one of the above three documents with the claim of appeal will not toll subsequent filing deadlines for transcripts or briefs. Sustained failure to provide the required documentation may result in dismissal of the appeal under MCR 7.201(B)(3), as long as the Court of Appeals provides a minimum 7-day warning.

5. Application for Leave—Form of Filing. An application for leave to appeal, or an answer to an application for leave to appeal, filed under this administrative order shall conform in all pertinent respects with the requirements of MCR 7.205. At the time an application or an answer is filed, the filing party must provide the Court of Appeals with 5 copies of that party's trial court summary disposition motion or response, brief, and appendices.
6. Claim of Cross-Appeal. Subject to the filing deadline contained in section 2, ~~a~~A claim of cross-appeal filed under this administrative order shall conform in all other pertinent respects with the requirements of MCR 7.207.

Motions to remove by the appellee or cross-appellee must be filed no later than the time for filing of the appellee's brief. A motion to remove may be filed by any party at any time. However, filing of the motion most closely in time to discovery of~~ the basis for removal will maximize the likelihood that the motion will be granted.

 - (D) Disposition. Within 14 days after the filing of the motion to remove, the Court of Appeals shall issue an order disposing of the motion and setting the time for further filings in the case. The time for further filings in the case will commence on the date of certification of the order on the motion.
 - (E) Docketing Statement. If the case is removed from the summary disposition track, a docketing statement must be filed within 14 days after the date of certification of the order on the motion.
 - (F) Administrative Removal. The Court of Appeals may remove a case from the summary disposition track at any time, on its own motion, if it appears to the Court that the case is not an appropriate candidate for processing under this administrative order.

- (2) ~~If the appellant desires the transcript for the appeal, the appellant must order the transcript before or contemporaneously with the filing of the claim of appeal. Evidence that the transcript was ordered must be filed with the claim of appeal or application for leave to appeal. If the court reporter or recorder does not timely file the transcript within 28 days after it was ordered, the rate will remain $1.75 per original page and 30 cents per page for each transcript, as set by MCL 600.2543.

9. Briefs on Appeal.

(A) With the following exceptions, the parties' briefs shall conform to the requirements of MCR 7.212.

(B) Time For Filing.

- (1) In appeals by right, the appellant's brief shall be filed within 28 days after the claim of appeal is filed, or as ordered by the Court. In appeals by leave, the appellant's brief shall be filed within 28 days after the order granting leave is certified, or the timely ordered transcript is timely filed with the trial court, whichever is later, or as ordered by the Court. In appeals by leave, the appellant may rely on the application for leave to appeal rather than filing a separate brief by timely filing 5 copies of the application for leave to appeal with a new cover page over letter indicating that the appellant is relying on the application in lieu of filing a brief on appeal. The cover page should indicate whether oral argument is requested or is not requested. MCR 7.212(C)(1).
- (2) The appellee's brief shall be filed within 28 days after the appellant's brief is served on the appellee, or as ordered by the Court. A motion may include a statement from opposing counsel that counsel does not oppose the 14-day extension. A motion to extend the time for filing a brief will be submitted for disposition forthwith; opposing counsel need not file an answer.
- (4) If the appellant's brief is not filed within 7 days after the date due, the Court of Appeals shall issue an order assessing costs and warning the appellant that the case will be dismissed if the brief is not filed within 14 days after the deadline. (C) Length and Form. Briefs filed under this administrative order are limited to 35 pages, double-spaced, exclusive of tables, indexes, and appendices.

(1) At the time each brief is filed, the filing party must provide the Court of Appeals with that party's trial court summary disposition motion or response, brief, and appendices. Failure to file these documents at the time of filing the appellant's brief will not extend the time to file the appellee's brief, however. Provided such omission is noted appropriately in the appellee's brief, the appellee may omit these appendices if they were included with the appellant's brief.

(2) ~~The appellant may wish to include a copy of the transcript (if any) if it was completed after the lower court file was transmitted to the Court of Appeals.~~

12. Decision of the Court. The opinion or order of the panel shall be issued no later than 35 days after submission of the case to, or oral argument before, a panel of judges for final disposition.

This amended order will remain in effect until December 31, 2006, ~~for two years from the date of its implementation~~, during which time the Court of Appeals Delay Reduction Work Group will monitor the expedited docket program. If, at any time during that monitoring process, it becomes apparent to the work group that procedural aspects of the program need to be modified, the group is encouraged to seek authorization from this Court to implement modifications. The work group will provide this Court with written updates on the pilot program before the one-year and eighteen-month anniversaries of the program's implementation. At the end of the two-year pilot period, this Court will evaluate expedited processing of summary disposition appeals to determine whether the procedure will be discontinued, changed, or continued.

Staff Comment: This is a new procedure requested by the Court of Appeals for the processing of appeals from orders granting or denying summary disposition. The new procedure applies to appeals filed after January 1, 2005. The procedure will be in effect for a two-year pilot period with ongoing monitoring by the delay reduction work group. That group will provide updates to the Court before the one-year and eighteen-month anniversaries of the pilot period. The group is authorized, during the two-year pilot period, to seek from the Court modification of the expedited docket procedures.

The transcript rate is authorized by statute. 2004 PA 328.

The Court of Appeals offered the following explanation of the expedited docket procedure:

The Court of Appeals estimates that summary disposition appeals make up about 50% of the Court's nonpriority civil cases. The procedure proposed by the Court's Case Management Work Group and announced in this administrative order is structured to facilitate disposition of eligible appeals within about 180 days after filing with the Court of Appeals. The work group's report can be accessed on the Court of Appeals website at <http://courtofappeals.mijud.net/resources/specialproj.htm>.

The procedure announced here is intended to apply to appeals arising solely from orders on motions for summary disposition. Orders that reference other issues between the parties will not be eligible for this track. If an eligible appeal is deemed to be inappropriate for the expedited docket, the Court can remove it, either on its own motion or on motion of one or both of the parties. Such motions must be in the form prescribed by the Court of Appeals. See <http://courtofappeals.mijud.net/resources/forms.htm>.

The procedure encourages parties to evaluate whether a transcript of hearing(s) on the motion would be helpful on appeal. If little was stated on the record, or there is nothing to be gained from the transcript, it can be waived. In such cases, the appellant's brief (accompanied by the appellant's trial court motion, brief, and appendices) will be due within 28 days after filing the claim of appeal or entry of an order granting leave to appeal. If the transcript is ordered, it will be due within 28 days, with the appellant's brief due 28 days later. The appellee's brief (accompanied by its trial court motion, brief, and appendices) will be due 21 days from service of the appellant's brief. Motions to extend the time for filing briefs will be granted only on good cause shown and, generally, only for a maximum of 14 days. As a general matter, good cause will be limited to unexpected events that directly affect the ability to timely file the brief. When the motion is premised on work load considerations, at a minimum the motion should identify the cases and the courts in which filing deadlines are converging and specify the least amount of time that would be required to file the brief. Once briefing has been completed, the case will be referred to the Court's research attorneys for an expedited review and it will then be submitted to a panel of judges for disposition.

The staff comment is not an authoritative construction by the Court.

Staff Comment for amended order: The amendments require an appellant to order the transcripts or the preparation of transcripts may be waived by stipulation. Evidence of ordering the transcripts must be filed with the claim of appeal or application for leave to appeal. Provisions also are added to allow appropriate motions if ordered transcripts are not timely filed. If the transcript was not filed by the time the appellant's brief was served on multiple appellees, only one appellee needs to file an appropriate motion. The order on the motion will state the deadline for filing any outstanding briefs.

The amendments identify the trial court documents that must be appended to applications for leave to appeal and answers filed in response.

A party may file a motion to remove a case from the expedited summary disposition docket at any time, not just within a narrow time period. The amendments require the order of removal to state whether, and the deadlines by which, parties may file standard briefs.

The amendments provide that an appellant's brief will be due in 56 days from the claim of appeal or 28 days from the order granting leave to appeal. An appellee's brief will be due in 28 days from service of the appellant's brief.

The amendments allow an appellee to omit appendices if the documents were appended to the appellant's brief.

The amendments delete many filing deadlines for motion practice under the rule. Instead, pertinent provisions indicate that filing a motion most closely in time to discovery of the basis for it will maximize the likelihood that it will be granted.
